

INSTITUTE OF HUMANITIES
PAN-ATLANTIC UNIVERSITY

FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATION 2025/2026 SESSION
COURSE TITLE: ENGLISH FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES FOR MASS COMMUNICATION & FILM

TIME: 2 Hours

INSTRUCTIONS: Answer question one (compulsory) and two other questions.

1. Introduction to Business English (25 marks)

An oil multinational company, Hui Wa Drills, based in China, plans to expand into Nigeria. As a communication consultant, what pieces of advice would you give to help bridge linguistic and cultural gaps between the company's Chinese executives and their Nigerian associates?

Your answer should address the following:

- How cultural misinterpretations affect business negotiations and long-term corporations between Chinese executives and Nigerian acquaintances
- How continuous intercultural training influences communication efficiency and organisational operation in a multinational context

2. Business Appraisals Report Writing (20 marks)

Dangote Refinery has appointed you to observe and evaluate a business meeting between the company and officials of the Ibeju Local Government Area (LGA) in Lagos State, where negotiations are underway regarding the acquisition of land for refinery expansion. Based on your observations, write a formal appraisal report that critically assesses the negotiation process. Your report should address the following:

- a. The use of language (Yoruba and English) during the meeting, and how bilingual communication shaped power relations, trust, and mutual understanding.
- b. The role of appearance, temperament, and the physical setting in influencing the tone and outcome of the negotiation.
- c. An evaluation of whether the LGA is likely to accept the terms proposed by Dangote Refinery, supported by reasoned arguments.

Ensure you follow the proper structure of writing an appraisal report.

3. Dialogue and Protocol (20 marks)

You have been appointed by Pan-Atlantic University (PAU) to meet with officials from the British Embassy, who are visiting the institution to discuss the proposed establishment of an auditorium complex. Write a dialogue between yourself and the head of the delegation, Mr. Smith, in which you explore the feasibility of the project at the university.

- In your dialogue, ensure that you address practical considerations such as funding, design, sustainability, and community impact.
- Finally, explain what additional information or assurances the British Embassy might require before making a formal commitment to support the auditorium project.

4. Resume and Cover Letter (20 marks)

PAU has advertised a vacancy for a public relations intern in the Vice-Chancellor's office. Write a cover letter and a comprehensive resume for the position.